

Rebecca (Wilson) Pearce

Class of 1974

December 15, 1955 –September 11, 2009

Obituary

Rebecca Pearce "fought the good fight. finished the race.kept the faith." (2 Tim. 4:7) Becky fought colon cancer the last three years supported by many prayers and then joined her sister Kimberly in the presence of the Lord Jesus on Friday, September 11. Becky was born December 15, 1955 in Lubbock TX. She was graduated from Robert E. Lee High School in San Antonio in 1974 and attended Texas A&I University in Kingsville. She is the wife of Bobby Pearce and the mother of Kimberly, Noah, Lara, and Julianna. She was a member of a wonderfully loving small group from Community

Bible Church where she spent many years loving and working with the children's program. Those who will miss her terribly are her dear husband Bobby; daughter Kimberly and Kevin Cummings and their children Eliot, Harper, and Harrison; son Noah Pearce and his daughter Megan; and daughters Lara and Julianna Pearce; her parents Joyce and Blackie Sherrod; aunt Jeanelle and uncle James Sims; cousins Jerry and Susie Anderson and family; Ron and Deborah Anderson and family; Anita and Jim English and family; step-mother Barbara Wilson; sisters Amy Drizhal, Robin Walker and Rollin Roberts and their families; and so many loving friends and connected family that to name them all would fill this newspaper. The service will be Monday, September 14 at 1pm at Community Bible Church 2477 N Loop 1604 E, in San Antonio. The family wishes to acknowledge and thank so many fellow patients and wonderful nurses and doctors who fought this battle with Becky. Dear friends supplying their talents, memories and love at her funeral service are Pastor Sean Metcalf of CBC, Gary Young, Juli Henderson and Karen Lancaster.